WHEREAS, Section 125.80, et seq., Florida Statutes, provides a method whereby a non-charter county may locally initiate a county home rule charter;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF LEON COUNTY, FLORIDA, that:

SECTION 1. HOME RULE CHARTER.

The proposed Home Rule Charter of Leon County, Florida, shall read as follows:

PREAMBLE

We, the citizens of Leon County, Florida, united in the belief that governmental decisions affecting local interests should be made locally, rather than by the State, and that County government should be reflective of the people of the County and should serve them in achieving a more responsive and efficient form of government and in order to empower the people of this County to make changes in their own government, do ordain and establish this Home Rule Charter for Leon County, Florida.

ARTICLE I. CREATION, POWERS AND ORDINANCES OF HOME RULE CHARTER GOVERNMENT

Sec. 1.1. Creation and general powers of Home Rule Charter government.

The County shall have all powers of self-government not inconsistent with general law, with special law approved by vote of the electors, or with this Charter. The County shall have all county and municipal powers of self-government granted now or in the future by the Constitution and laws of the State of Florida.

Sec. 1.2. Body corporate, name and boundaries.

Leon County shall be a body corporate and politic. The corporate name shall be Leon County, Florida. The County seat and boundaries shall be those designated by law on the effective date of this Home Rule Charter.

Sec. 1.3. Construction.

The powers granted by this Home Rule Charter shall be construed broadly in favor of the charter government. The specified powers in this Charter shall not be construed as limiting, in any way, the general or specific power of the government as stated in this article. It is the intent of this article to grant to the charter government full power and authority to exercise all governmental powers necessary for the effective operation and conduct of the affairs of the charter government.

Sec. 1.4. County Purposes.

The County, operating under this Charter, shall have all special powers and duties which are not inconsistent with this Charter, heretofore granted by law to the Board of County Commissioners, and shall have such additional county and municipal powers as may be required to fulfill the intent of this Charter.

Sec. 1.5. Municipal Purposes.

The County shall have all necessary municipal powers to accomplish municipal purposes within the County. In the event the Board of County Commissioners levies the Municipal Public Services Tax on utilities, any additional recurring or non-recurring fee or charge imposed on a utility relating to the use or occupation of the public rights-of-way shall not exceed what is reasonably necessary to properly monitor and enforce compliance with the County's rules and regulations concerning placement and maintenance of utility facilities in the public rights-of-way.

Sec. 1.6. Relation to Municipal Ordinances.

Except as otherwise provided by law or this Charter, municipal ordinances shall prevail over County ordinances to the extent of any conflict within the boundaries of the municipality. To the extent that a county ordinance and a municipal ordinance shall cover the same subject without conflict, then both the municipal ordinance and the county ordinance shall be effective, each being deemed supplemental to the other.

Sec. 1.7. Transfer of Power.

Whenever a municipality, special district or agency shall request by a majority vote of the governing body the performance or transfer of a function to the County, the County is so authorized by a majority vote of the Board of County Commissioners to have the power and authority to assume and perform such functions and obligations. This section does not authorize a transfer in violation of Article VIII, § 4 of the Constitution of Florida.

Sec. 1.8. Division of Powers.

This Charter establishes the separation between legislative and administrative functions of this government. The establishment and adoption of policy shall be the responsibility of the Board of County Commissioners and the execution of that policy shall be the responsibility of the County Administrator.

Sec. 1.9. Relation to State Law.

Special laws of the state legislature relating to or affecting Leon County and general laws of local application which apply only to Leon County, except those laws relating exclusively to a municipality, the school board, or a special district, shall be subject to approval by local referendum to the extent that they are not in conflict with this Charter.
